PRESS RELEASE

Scouts honor construction industry leaders

Hawthorne, New York H. Lewis Rapaport, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Component Assembly Systems, Inc. and Nicholas Signorelli, Business Manager of Local 137 of the International Union of Operating Engineers received the Construction Industry “Good Scout” Award at a Dinner to benefit the Westchester-Putnam Council, Boy Scouts of America on October 30th at the Hilton Rye Town Grand Ballroom.

“The ‘Good Scout’ Award is presented to outstanding leaders in recognition of both their business accomplishments and their community involvement,” states Marc Andreo, Scout Executive of the Westchester- Putnam Council. “Recipients must also reflect the strong set of values that are at the heart of Scouting: duty to God and country, service to others and personal integrity.”

Proceeds from the event will help to strengthen Scouting that serves more than 10,000 boys and girls in a wide range of programs throughout Westchester and Putnam Counties. Leading the fundraising efforts are dinner Co-Chairmen Arthur Doerner, President of Component Assembly Systems; Gregory Cuneo, Chairman of HRH Construction; Jeff Loughlin, Business Agent of IUOE local 137 and Alan Green, Administrative Vice President at M&T Bank.

The Westchester-Putnam Council provides a year-round program for over 10,000 young people, ages 7-21, through the efforts of over 3,000 adult volunteers, throughout the two counties. It operates two major outdoor activity and camping facilities: in Putnam Valley and Brant Lake, NY. It’s dedicated to the mission of the Boy Scouts of America: “to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law”.
